

Job Title: Graduate

Duties will include:

- Daily liaising with customers, suppliers, & trade partners both in Ireland and internationally
- Assisting in preparation of market reports, price updates & an accurate, empirical narrative on daily price-movements
- Building on existing customer & supplier relationships in addition to developing new customers & suppliers accounts
- Working closely with other traders to ensure they are aware of key market developments & information on a daily basis
- Working with the trading team to input real-time market information into daily physical price-list for Grain & NGFI products
- Working closely with shipping to assist with efficient & smooth logistics of import vessels
- Working closely with the stock & logistics team to ensure customers always have access to product as they require
- Working closely with our quality team to always ensure full compliance with each product's quality requirements
- Working with finance department in compilation of real-time data analysis required to assist with day-to-day decision-making
- Conducting assigned research topics autonomously and presenting findings to the trading team and finance department
- Working on projects which contribute to further development of business and information systems used by the company

 +353 (1) 283 2270

 info@comex-mckinnon.ie

 www.comex-mckinnon.ie

 Castlebaggot, Baldonnell Road,
Dublin 22, D22 C970

Ideal candidate:

- A college graduate with a 2.1 or greater
- Strong numerical/mathematical ability an advantage
- Strong proficiency in general computing
- An interest in agricultural and trading trends
- Flexible attitude and approach, willingness to put the extra effort in to complete tasks
- Ambitious with a strong work ethic, and the ability to learn quickly
- Committed to proactively improving the quality and standards of the areas under supervision
- A strong communicator with good interpersonal skills who is at ease resolving issues with customers & suppliers

Salary:

Competitive Remuneration Package & Company Benefits